The Woodall Rodgers Park Foundation Announces Leadership Additions, Goals

Garrett Boone, Jeff Jackson and Nancy Best Join Foundation Board

Board Aims to Raise $30 million

DALLAS (Dec. 15, 2009) —The Woodall Rodgers Park Foundation announces three new members of its board – Nancy Best, president of the Shelter Ministries; Garrett Boone, chairman emeritus for The Container Store; and, Jeff Jackson, Executive Vice President of Corporate Business Development for Sabre Holdings.

“We are grateful to have the support and energy of these exceptional Dallasites on our board,” said Chairman Jody Grant. “We are all committed to making an exceptional park that Dallas can be proud of and enjoy for generations.”

The new members of the board join Chairman Jody Grant, President Linda Owen, Leo Corrigan, Ed Fjordbak, Sheila Grant, John Muse, Rob Walters, and John Zogg.

The Foundation has initiated the final phase of its fundraising campaign to raise $30 million for The Park’s amenities and programming. There are 5 naming opportunities available at $2 million or more, five Cornerstone-level donors available at $1.5 million, and eight Founder-level donations available at $1million. For more information about or to give to our capital campaign, please contact Kristin Gray, Director of Development at 214.880.1509 or kristin@theparkdallas.org.

Construction for the Park is currently underway and is expected be complete in 2012 with amenities complete in late 2012, pending private donations. Visit www.theparkdallas.org for more information.

About The Park

The Park will serve as a central gathering space for Dallas and its visitors to enjoy in the heart of the city. The 5.2-acre deck park will create an urban green space over the existing Woodall Rodgers Freeway between Pearl and St. Paul streets in downtown Dallas. Plans include a performance pavilion, restaurant, walking trails, a dog park, a children's playground, water features, an area for games and much more.
